We need to be mindful that they have a lot of school work and activities as well. 3 hours on a weekend is difficult especially for single parents. Notice how many don't return after..(Louis Bodnar: can't read the last few words)	L	education
55	I still miss the weekly PSR schedule after 8:30 Mass and the community that it offered. This is what brought me more deeply into parish life when my oldest children began attending. I undertand the concept of GOF bringing parent to sesions but if this couldhave been during the weekly session maybe once in a month it would have worked perfectly for my family. That format also offered a transition for youth (as teachers, helpers, etc. during the weekly session)	E	education
61	I feel like , outside of Generations of Faith, there is litle for families to participate in to grow deeper spiritually and learn about our Catholic faith. There is a great and wonderful outreach to the needy, homebound, and elderly but our parents and young are suffering because there are inconvenient or no oppportunities for learning(?? learns???) We need an encounter with Christ. The current adult (18-50) generation needs catechised	E	education

34	Why we do what we do as Catholics? It's routine, and we feel as though if there is "meaning" beyond we would gt more out of our faith as being Catholic.	L	general

Our focus seems to be on how we operate as a business. We seem to lack spiritual vision of where we want to be 3-5 years which impairs our ability to invest our resources in the future of our parish. We should be investing our $ into the spiritual
